

Benefits and Barriers to More Inclusive Programs and Diverse Constituents

This worksheet was created by The Denver Foundation's Inclusiveness Project (www.nonprofitinclusiveness.org) to support organizations doing inclusiveness work.

Users are encouraged to customize the worksheet to meet the needs of their respective organizations.

Instructions

- Write down all of the benefits and barriers that you can think of for having more inclusive programs and for having more diverse constituents.
- Before you begin, revisit Visualizing Greater Inclusiveness for a reminder of some of your initial reflections on this matter.
- In addition to the points discussed in the module, think about benefits that might be specific to your particular organization.
